Chairman's Musings

There must still be some U3A Members that I have not delighted (or bored) with the news that it was my only daughter's wedding on the 26th of last month. So my thoughts have been taken up by that event for much of the month. No doubt many of you have had the same experience.

My daughter Claire, who organises large events for a living said that she would do all the arrangements and quickly found a lovely venue for the wedding, choose the menu and drinks, sent out the invitations, arranged the photographer, the dress, the bridesmaids dresses, specified what the men should wear(!), arranged the flowers etc. etc. Even helped mom choose her dress. The tasks seemed endless but they were all documented and duly ticked off. The cake was a bit of a late decision but Gail Holland came to the rescue and did her usual brilliant job.

I thought that Gill and I were having a very easy ride and then came the two weeks before the wedding. Table plans had to be compiled, Dad had to collect the dress from St Albans. The venue would only allow rose petals for confetti. ebay came to the rescue with rose petals, cake boxes, confetti cones and a cake topper. The boxes etc. from ebay were flat pack. They took hours to assemble (Dad's job!). I could not have imagined so much effort went into just one day.

The wedding went brilliantly, from the moment Rob from Louise Faye arrived at the venue to do the ladies hair to the rather noisy Beatles Tribute Band in the evening. My daughter was smiles all day. No panics, all very smooth.

On reflection what an industry has built up around the Wedding. Every imaginable thing seems available and the amount that can be spent in just one day is equally unimaginable to the first time innocent! The attention to detail is incredible. Everything must match and be colour co-ordinated. I read somewhere that the average wedding cost is now £23k. I think our wedding (Gill and I) cost about £400, but that was 36 years ago. Makes me wonder - my engineering background surfacing - whether it has all got a bit out of hand. What a super, super day though. Just hope I never have to repeat it.

U3A Matters

FIRST CHANCE Notices on the new Noticeboard. Group Leaders - the new noticeboard is now available for you to display an A4 fly sheet telling the membership what your Group does. If you need help with the flyer talk to one of the Committee members. The board will be displayed at the U3A monthly meetings.

LAST CHANCE. Nominations for the U3A Committee (see nomination form on back page). If you can be persuaded into joining the Committee then please talk to one of the existing Committee members about what is involved. You will probably be surprised at how enjoyable the work can be. The main functions of the Committee is to arrange the monthly meeting and, of course, to ensure that our U3A runs smoothly. We need your ideas! You will be very welcome in the Committee and the commitment can be just 2 hours a month.

Just remember that without the Committee there would be no U3A!

See you at the Meeting on the 20th

2) Winter Village Wanderers Now up and running! See page 9.

Italian Conversation – Interested?

There has been a suggestion that a number of people are interested in this subject. It would be an informal group who could practise/help each other with their Italian speaking skills. Anyone interested in this please contact me so I can ascertain the viability of this proposal.

Existing Groups

Anglo- Zulu War Study Group

Our new group continues to enjoy aspects of the Anglo-Zulu War, having added further recruits to our ranks. At our last meeting our Group Leader's 1999 trip round studied the Siege of Eshowe and watched a programme about the AZW re-enactment group, the Diehards. At our next meeting we will be watching a video of the History Channel programme "Zulu Wars". We meet on the last Tuesday afternoon in the month, but now are fully up to battalion strength. However, if anyone is interested in joining us on the ramparts, please give me a ring and I'll put you on the Reserve List.

French Conversation

It's like any other small group of friends meeting in somebody's house to sit round the fire, share a pot of coffee and talk about this and that – except for one thing. Instead of talking in English (which we could all do without any effort at all) we do it in French (which is often quite a struggle). It seems a bit mad – even to us at times - but it's a way of keeping alive a skill we have but don't very often get a chance to use. We don't study French and we don't have set conversations about big topics like the future of the euro or the situation in Syria. We just do what we'd be doing anyway: saying whatever comes into our heads whether it's serious or frivolous (and we're quite good at frivolous).

We meet on the first and third Thursday morning of each month. If you'd like to give us a try and if you know at least enough French to muddle through in a conversation, you'd be very welcome to join us. Just ring for details of the next meeting.

Gardening

As our 2012 programme draws to a close, Mary and I would like to thank you all for your tremendous support during the year. It may not have been the most auspicious weather for gardening – my roses, potatoes and beans chose to hide their light under a bushel, while chrysanthemums, hydrangeas and autumn foliage have shone through. Whether peeking out from under umbrellas or parasols, we hope you have enjoyed the talks and visits – my personal favourite was the guided tour of Castle Ashby including a bonus look at the private gardens and it's too close to call which of the fascinating NGS gardens deserves top spot! I look forward to seeing you at 2.30pm on 28 November for our Members' Christmas Meeting in Kibworth Grammar School. Mary's deserted us for the sunny climes of Australia, but it should be fun. Known to many of you, talented flower arranger, Alison Picken is going to demonstrate Festive Decorations and donate as raffle prizes; there will also be a teasing prize pictorial quiz; the launch of our 2013 programme; and Joan Fillingham is kindly organising the mince pies and tea.

We won't meet in December as it falls on Boxing Day, but will reconvene on Wednesday 30 January at 2.30pm in KGS for a talk by Chris Etherington on 'The Development & Successes of Market Harborough in Bloom'.

Latin for Beginners

Our revision of Book One of the Cambridge Latin Course is now drawing to a close. The second study of the initial book has proved very helpful and we now plan to renew our acquaintance again with the second book in the series. It is worth mentioning that our knowledge of Latin has previously been quite limited but we derive pleasure from the many discussions we have about the grammar, history and the occasional unbelievable behaviour of the Romans two thousand years ago!

November

No sun - no moon!
No morn - no noon
No dawn - no dusk - no proper time of day.

No comfortable feel in any member -
No shade, no shine, no butterflies, no bees,
No fruits, no flowers, no leaves, no birds! -
November!

Sketch Club

With the onset of wintry weather we are beginning to change the balance of our activities. During the summer months we get out as often as possible to places where there's plenty of unusual stuff to draw - street markets, smallholdings, junk yards and so on. As it gets colder we retreat more often to somebody's house to share ideas and try out different techniques. For example we've been trying out different ways of using colour in sketching, and at present we're exploring and developing ideas from the work of the watercolourist John Blockley.

We do still venture out from time to time – but in the coming months a lot is going to depend on what sort of winter we get.

We meet on the second and fourth Friday morning of each month. If you think you might be interested in coming to one of our meetings just ring for more details.

We have a break half way through for tea and biscuits and put the world to rights.

We have some spare bats so why not come along and give it a try. Just turn up at the Scout Hut at 2.30 pm Fridays

Walking

Since the previous Newsletter, we have continued to walk as planned. The walk on 19th October led by Ros Holmes attracted 19 members and yet again the weather stayed dry. This was a four-mile walk from the Golden Shield at Fleckney across grassy fields to the canal, then along the towpath, past five locks. We viewed the Millennium Wood that now looks established, but did not have time to cross over the canal to enjoy it closely. From Crane's Lock we returned to Fleckney across meadows and one ploughed field. The 19 members were relieved to return to the pub before it rained.

Our walk on 2nd November took place after a few days of very wet and cold weather.

Luckily, again the morning turned out sunny and clear with a brisk chilly wind. thanks to the ingenuity of Christine and Pat in cooperation with the bus service 21 members enjoyed a bracing walk from Glen Gorse golf club across rather saturated fields, muddy bridle paths and a length of pleasant towpath. We marvelled at buildings in Kibworth Harcourt and many autumnal scenes in sparkling sunshine before taking a good lunch at the Yews in Great Glen. Thanks to our leaders for their work in preparing and executing these two walks .

We met on 16th November and after a short walk from the Kings Head at Smeeton Westerby we held our annual discussion about the activities and organisation of the group.

As this month has a fifth Friday, we have planned morning and afternoon walks on 30th November (leaders Alan and Marion Brown). In the morning we will start from The Griffin Inn, in Swithland, (10:15 for 10:30) and walk over the fields and through Swithland Woods before returning to The Griffin for lunch. In the afternoon we shall drive round the corner to Bradgate Park where we shall take a leisurely stroll to the café for afternoon tea before returning home. You do not have to do the full day. You could just do the morning or afternoon session or even join us for lunch at 1:00 pm.

We will meet on 7th December at the Rose and Crown at Tilton on the Hill for our group Christmas lunch preceded by a short walk (leader Stephen Poyzer 0116 279 3590 stephenpoyzer@gmail.com). Please send enquiries about the lunch to Mike.

Preparations are in hand for a walk on 21st December (leader probably Mike). Currently we expect this will be a shorter walk, dependent not only on finding some dry land to walk on and finding an available hostelry.

If you intend to join any of our walks or need further information about them please contact the walk leader or, if you want to know more about what we do, please contact Mike or Alan. New members are always welcome. Car sharing can be arranged if needed.

Photos taken during our walks can be seen on the Kibworth and District U3A website

Winter Village Wanders

With clear bright blue skies overhead and gentle warmth emanating from the November sun - an unexpected good afternoon's weather for the time of year - eight amblers circumnavigated the village of Burton Overy in about an hour visiting Scotland! As the whole walk was no more than a mile you can see we perambulated so slowly the grass was almost beginning to grow between our toes! Just right for those who think a walking group's activities may be beyond their capabilities.

Last month, October, our initial walk was from the Grammar School Hall car park to Kibworth Harcourt and back! Seeing the Munt, the windmill (from a distance) and some alleyways - all in the space of 90 minutes or so.

Next month's amble will be on Sunday 16 December around our nearest market town, Market Harborough, where we will not only enjoy some of the Millennium mile but at the end marvel at the Christmas lights. Meet at Kibworth Grammar School Hall car park at 2pm so that car sharing can be arranged. I am afraid there are no refreshment stops along the way!

If you are interested please come and join us, any further information required please contact Stephen Poyzer 0116 279 3590 stephenpoyzer@gmail.com
