Chairman's Musings

I have just read my musings for November of last year when Gill and I had just enjoyed our only daughter's wedding when even despite meticulous planning there were still a few last minute panics. We were both really happy as all the guests seemed to have enjoyed the event. How different to our feelings of today having just returned from the funeral of one of our best friends who succumbed to cancer after a long and extremely brave battle against the disease. The funeral was beautifully conducted but it was still a funeral. Sad to say that as we get older we seem to attend more funerals than weddings and many of us have to suffer the loss of dear friends.

So unfortunately my musings for this month are rather downbeat but that is life- constantly changing but not always for the better.

On a more upbeat note autumn is now with us in all its glory. I have even seen a few startling murmurations on the A6 and the tree colours are magnificent. Having started painting lessons, it has made me look at things in a new way. I have always been a keen photographer and often used all my limited technical expertise to brighten shade as the camera cannot cope with wide brightness variations. As a painter it is extremely valuable adding depth and life to the image and the tonal range can be immense. What was once my enemy is now my friend. I am now in even greater awe of accomplished artists as I have quickly found out how difficult it is to produce the effect I want. It's practice, practice, practice to hone my very limited talent to get near the result I want. Looks like my wife Gill is going to suffer another hobby and its associated purchases.

U3A Matters

OPEN DAY

Octobers Open day was a great success with an attendance of 101 and many new people joining us. Thanks to all those who provided the displays, posters etc. they were really good and showed what a lively U3A we have.

LAST CHANCE nominations for the U3A Committee.

If you can be persuaded into joining the Committee then please talk to one of the existing Committee members about what is involved. You will probably be surprised at how enjoyable the work can be. The main function of the Committee is to arrange the monthly meeting and, of course, to ensure that our U3A runs smoothly. We need your ideas! You will be very welcome in the Committee and the commitment can be just two hours a month.

Just remember that without the Committee there would be no U3A!

See you at the Meeting on the 19th!

Keith

Possible Groups /New Groups– Update

Some interest has been shown in the “Sixties Music” mentioned in last month’s Newsletter. We would however need more people to make it viable, particularly as the intention is to meet monthly in a Pub room. Some hostelrys offer a room free provided several people are buying drinks and snacks so if you are interested please let our Groups Co-ordinator, David Porter know. So far not much interest has been shown in Wine Tasting or Listening to Jazz

Windows 8 Computer Course

As you may know Microsoft has upgraded to Windows 8 which is very different from the XP, Vista and 7 versions. The U3A laptops are on Vista and the cost of upgrading all the laptops to Windows 8 is prohibitive. BUT if you want to learn about Windows 8 please ring me as it may be feasible to upgrade one laptop to run a course.

However if you have any interest in short courses on word processing, spreadsheets, photo editing etc then these can be arranged as once the programme is accessed it runs the same in any Windows Operating system i.e. XP, Vista, 7 or 8.

News from Existing Groups

Anglo-Zulu War Study Group

Our friendly, yet knowledgeable group continues to enjoy aspects of the Anglo-Zulu War. Recently we watched videos of the Battle of Rorke’s Drift and a documentary on the Zulu people and at our next meeting we will be listening to a cassette recounting the early days of the settlers in Natal and the events leading up to the Anglo-Zulu War. We meet on the last Tuesday afternoon in the month. We are now up to battalion strength, but if anyone is interested in joining us on the ramparts, please give me a ring and I’ll put you on the Reserve list for duties when we have a vacancy in the ranks.

(Social) Bridge Group

This is a social bridge group where we try to learn something most weeks but our main aim is just to socialise and play rubber bridge. We welcome players of all levels and will help players from many years ago to update to ACOL bridge and help learners to improve. We play Chicago about once a month. We play in the Lounge at the Grammar School Hall every Thursday 2.30 to 4.30 pm Plenty of car parking.

I am afraid we have now reached maximum capacity for the room and tables and therefore cannot take any new members for the near future.

Social Bridge Lunch

Our next bridge lunch will be as last year at the Kibworth Golf Club, on Thursday 5 December. As before it will be starting around 9.30 am , playing Chicago from 10am to around 12.30pm followed by lunch. Please see Joyce to make sure you have booked your place.

Digital Photography

The Club needs members as we were down to 5 when we had our summer break. Unfortunately the Open Day produced only four interested members so the Club will not start this year
Last years sessions were aimed at choosing and using your camera. We learnt how to use Picasa Photo Editor and started to use the more capable GIMP photo editor.

Venue will depend on numbers so please give me a ring to discuss your needs or ideas.

Flower Arranging

At our meeting on Tuesday November 5th two members practiced hand tied flowers and others did their own interpretation of a "Basket with a Difference". This was followed by tea and a demonstration of a beautiful Christmas table arrangement by Sue Colledge.

We were all envious when Gill Holyoake won the arrangement in the raffle.

We were particularly delighted to see Chris Spinks at the meeting as she had spent the previous week in hospital due to a broken arm. Pam presented Chris with a basket of flowers with best wishes from the group. We were very pleased to welcome a new member Julia Muirhead to our group and look forward to seeing her again in December.

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday December 3rd when members will be invited to do their own Christmas Table Arrangement. This will be followed by mince pies and mulled wine.

Anyone wishing to join this friendly group please contact either Pam or Gill. All abilities welcome.

Gardening

We found a surprising amount of colour at Barnsdale on our visit the day before Halloween. Several flowering plants normally long gone were still in bloom and complemented the splendid Autumn foliage. Just as creator Geoff Hamilton intended, the 39 small gardens provided a wealth of ideas scaled to re-create at home. Although possibly the spooky spiders, cobwebs, bats and witch's cat were best left in their woodland setting!

Due to space constraints, our Christmas Meeting at 2.30pm in Kibworth Grammar School (KGS) on 27 November a strictly a Gardening Group Members affair. Highlights include a topical demonstration by Rutland Willows, who is donating the display as first prize for Mary's Quiz; a Raffle; and a Festive Tea. For members without email access, hard copies of the 2014 Programmewill be on hand. By popular demand, we have included more coach trips – half day visits to Felley Priory (30 April); Melbourne Hall (25 June); and Elton Hall and Gardens (27 August); with an All Day visit to Savill Garden , Windsor Great Park (28 May). You will be able to sign up for these Coach Trips at the meeting, although payment is not required until two months before the outing date.

We do not meet in December as the date falls too close to Christmas. However we will reconvene on Wednesday afternoon 29 January 2014 at 2.30pm in KGS for a Talk by Stephen Ashpole from the Desborough District Wildlife Trust, entitled Is Organic Gardening Better For Wildlife?

Things to Remember by James Reeves

The buttercups in May,
The wild rose on the spray,
The poppy in the hay,
The primrose in the dell,
The freckled foxglove bell,
The honeysuckle's smell
Are things I would remember
When cheerless, raw November
Makes room for dark December.

Safari Supper Group

I am pleased to report that the October Safari Supper visit was very well attended. Eighteen people went to The Langton Arms, Church Langton - our largest group outing yet - and we all thoroughly enjoyed yet another evening of great food and good conversation. Eighteen is probably the maximum number the group can comfortably cope with. We visited The Langton Arms based on one of our members

www.kibworthu3a.org.uk

recommendations after the original venue decided they would not have our party. The food was excellent in both quantity and quality and everyone was really replete when we left. We shall be returning to this venue in another season - we hope. Our thanks go to Janine and James at The Langton Arms for making us feel very welcome.

Talking about returning, arrangements have been made for our November (Christmas) outing to be at The Bell in East Langton where I am sure Nick and Shirley and Henry will put on their usual excellent spread. This will be on Wednesday 27 November.

Sarah and Lino Poli have agreed that our January outing will be at their, now Michelin recognised, restaurant, The Lighthouse. We will be celebrating our first year as the Safari Supper Club in January as will The Lighthouse! A double celebration!! This visit is to be on Thursday 30 January.

Looking further ahead we are also revisiting The Bakers Arms at Thorpe Langton. Tim and Kate will be sending over a menu in the New Year for us to make our choices. The restaurant has been booked for Wednesday 26 February for this outing,

If you wish to come to any of these supper evenings please email or telephone ASAP

We meet on the 2nd and 4th. Thursday in the month, 10 - 11.30 am St Wilfrid's Church Hall

Sketch Club

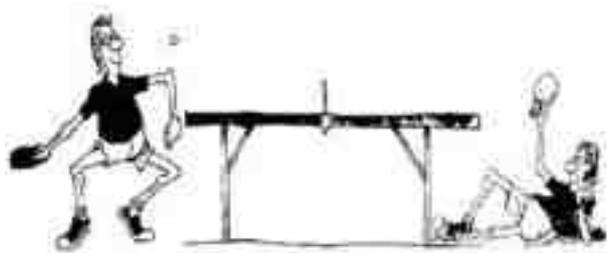

Sketches are generally done at speed so if they go wrong it's no great effort to start again from scratch and have another go. This one was drawn in ink, and the pattern on the dress was in white wax crayon with a little watercolour splodged over it. A bit rough and ready but fun to draw.

It's very much the sort of thing we sometimes do in the Sketch Club. We meet on the second and fourth Friday morning of each month and if you think you might like to join us at one of our meetings just ring for more details

Walking

On Friday 18 October fifteen members took to the high ground near Glooston for a longer walk led by Stephen Poyzer. This field walk started from Glooston, led over the hills to Noseley and onwards to Gaulby before returning to the very dependable Old Barn Inn for a delightful and well earned tasty lunch.

Sadly after weeks of very dry weather we were unfortunate on the day to endure quite poor visibility and were not able to see the very fine views from the hill tops but we did stop outside Noseley Hall for a group photo.

David and Nicola Porter led a shorter walk from the Kings Head, Smeeton Westerby across the fields and along the canal on 1 November followed by a Group Meeting which reviewed the past year and discussed plans for 2014. Mike Bullows announced he would be stepping down as group leader after running this group for many years (ably assisted by Alan Brown who was also stepping aside). The meeting expressed their thanks to both and a new small committee was chosen.

Alan and Marion Brown will be leading us further afield to Stamford for our next walk on 29 November, starting at the Town Meadows and walking to Easton on the Hill and Wothorpe. After lunch, there will be an opportunity to visit Stamford's large open market (lithops@onetel.com 0116 279 2559) On Friday 6 December, Ros Ousey (roslyousey096@btinternet.com 0116 240 2770) and Gail Goldie (gailgoldie@btinternet.com 0116 279 6882) are planning a short walk from Kibworth Golf Club to be followed by the Group's Christmas lunch at the Golf Club. If you plan to attend this lunch, please make sure you have given Gail or Ros your £15 by 27 November.

No walks are planned for 20 December or 3 January 2014. As always, please inform the walk leader two days before the event if you are planning to walk and whether you intend to stay for lunch. If you need further information about any of the walks, please contact the walk leader or, if you want to know more about what we do, please contact:

Winter Wanderers

On a very bright and crisp Sunday afternoon twelve folk ambled from the centre of Great Glen (close to The Greyhound) around the streets of said village gawping at the front gardens, the new planning developments and various house extensions. We stopped briefly by the village ford for these photos to be taken which show some of the group looking out from the bridge over the ford or alternatively standing in front of some rather grand willow trees in beautiful sunlight.

Finally we repaired to The Yews after about 45 minutes for some very civilised conversation and warm coffee.

Existing committee members and any paid up members of K&DU3A may stand for election. Members so elected will take office at the conclusion of the January AGM.
